DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 22-38 & 50-52, drawn to identifying foreground and background pixels with respect to a threshold, classified in class 382, subclass 130
 - II. Claims 29-30, drawn to calculating a quality measure for each image with respect to a rate of change, classified in class 382, subclass 131.
 - III
 - IV. Claims 1-21 & 31-39, drawn to generating a mask and a difference image, classified in class 382, subclass 132.
 - V. Claims 40-44, drawn to "generating a composite image as a function for each composite pixel " classified in class 382, subclass 130.
 - VI. Claims 45-49, drawn to a system including a contrast agent, classified in class 382, subclass 167.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination II has separate utility such as calculating a quality measure as a function of a difference of an average intensity with respect to their percentile of their row. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

3. Inventions IV, V and VI are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because combination V is broader and the composite image is generated as a function of each composite pixel. The subcombination has separate utility such as determining the image during which the contrast agent arrives.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Note that if applicant chooses subcombination III then he has to elect only ONE of the combination/subcombination groups (IV, V, VI).
